Part 4 – Objection to Personal Data Processing

Under Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation the individual has the right to object to personal data processing where one of the following grounds applies.

Please indicate below which personal data processing you are objecting to:

- ☐ Processing for direct marketing purposes, including profiling related to direct marketing.
- ☐ Processing for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical research purposes.
- ☐ Processing that the organization considers necessary to perform a task in the public interest under GDPR Article 6(1)(e).
- ☐ Processing that the organization considers necessary for the organization's or a third party's legitimate interest under GDPR Article 6(1)(f).

To help us process your request quickly and efficiently, please provide as much detail about the personal data you are objecting to.

We will communicate the objection of the personal data processing to each recipient to whom we disclosed the personal data unless this is impossible or involves disproportionate effort.

Part 5 – Possible fee.

There is normally no fee for a right to data processing objection. However, please be aware that Buckingham Canal Society is permitted to charge a reasonable fee when a request is deemed manifestly unfounded or excessive. If it is particularly repetitive or is requesting further copies of the same information. Buckingham Canal Society will notify you if it considers that a fee is payable due to the nature of your request. If a fee is required, your request will not be actioned until payment is received.
